

James Mater

Trainer/Coach/Explorer/ Search & Rescue

Owner of U-Trail Horseback Adventures

- Life-time experience with equine training and development in difficult terrains and situations. From high mountain ranges to deserts – no water to floods. From freezing cold to 120 F.
- From only one mule to 12 mules as pack string. Small to big groups as guests. Moving camp every day or stay at one site in the wilderness – where you can only walk or ride in.
- Exploration – wilderness exploration to develop trails, routes and destinations to the benefit of the public.
- Search & Rescue – assisting Search & Rescue organizations in wilderness efforts to locate lost hikers, or hunters.
- Over thirty years of conducting countless pack trips, horseback expeditions, hunting trips, and training schools in wilderness mountainous terrain.
- Featured in national and local publications such as National Geographic, Cowboy & Indians, New Mexico Magazine and Mules & More.
- Eagle Scout & Scout Master